

Tuff Hose for Ladies and Children

Facts About Strong-thread Dye

This dye does not weaken the fabric as the ordinary method of dyeing does, in fact it strengthens the stocking. It will not turn green.

It is fast and stainless and will give extraordinary service to the wearer.

We want you to test this statement; others have tried this Hose and say they wear the longest of any Hose they ever bought.

Tuff Hose for ladies in lisle thread at 25c per pair, tan and black.

Tuff Hose for ladies for 15c per pair, the best wearing Hose you ever bought for the money.

Tuff Hose for boys and girls. If you have not been satisfied with the children's hose you have been buying we recommend that you try these Tuff Hose at 15c per pair.

PERRY & CAMP,

Telephone 258-4.

71 and 75 Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Fifty-inch Panama, 55c, at Abbott's. Special cut prices on all odd suits at Abbott's.

Table board at the "Woodbine," 37 Jefferson street.

See the pretty lawns and muslins, just come, at Perry's.

See the new silks for dresses, 25c and 30c yard, at Vaughan's.

Negative shirts, all styles, 50c to $2.00, from the Frank McWhorter Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Selton Leach returned to their home in Monaca, N. Y., today, after spending a week with relatives in this city.

The academic and commercial members of the graduating class of Springfield high school enjoyed an outing at Berlin pond Saturday. The party was in charge of Miss A. Belle Young and J. E. Hughes.

We are now prepared to do all kinds of far concreting in Barre and vicinity. Nine years' experience. Best of material and workmanship warranted. Prices moderate. Roux Bros., 157 Seminary street.

The game scheduled to be played Saturday afternoon at Inter-city park, between the Italian Athletics and the Norwich university team, was canceled on account of rain. It is expected that a game between the two teams can be arranged for some day next week.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

New and Attractive

Ideas in our store are the ones that we want to call your attention to just now. We are to have summer soon, then the time will be limited to get just what everyone wants without some delay. Regal Shoes should be one of your purchases. They wear, they fit and have a style about them that you cannot get in other makes. Our assortment will not be as good later as just now.

New Wash Goods

There is always something new on our tables in the way of wash goods. Ask to see our Gairard Poplins in plain color and stripes, at 25c, for summer street costumes.

Zanzibar Pongee is one of our new clothes. This is linen color, with a pretty Persian pattern, at 25c per yard.

New Flaxons for summer suits. These are very pretty, as well as stylish, in colors at 25c, whites at 15c and 25c.

A good assortment of Colored Linens that were 30c, now at 25c per yard, for whole suits or separate skirts.

Ask to see new Indian Heads in colors at only 15c, for skirts or suits, also boys' suits and waists.

New and Below Cost

One lot of 50-inch All Wool Panamas in good colors, as follows: Slate, dark red or garnet, navy blue and Copenhagen, a regular 85c cloth; last has been our price, now at 65c. Nothing on the market at the price of so much value.

Yard-wide Black Taffeta, a leader at this price, $1.00 per yard.

We are selling a yard-wide Mousseline Silk in colors at $1.25 per yard. You know that wide goods cut much better than narrow, and there is at this time a price saving.

Last lot of Figured Curtain Serims at this price—15c. These are 18c and 20c Serims.

For a few days we are selling White Flouncings and Muslin Underwear on our tables at a special price. This refers more particularly to White Skirts and two-piece combinations.

Our New Silk Skirts at $3.50 and our new Suits, Coats and Wash Dresses are just now in big demand.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN.

One of the best is the P. N. corset, sold at Perry's.

See the new white dresses for ladies' wear, $2.25, $3.95, up, at Vaughan's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Griffith are passing a few days with relatives in Williams-town.

Sale ladies' garments; see them in window (not advertised), 95c each, at Vaughan's.

Raymond Boston, who has been attending Springfield high school, returned to his home in South Ryegate.

Mrs. A. E. Camp returned to her home in Walpole, N. H., to-day, after passing a week with friends in this city.

William Stuart left this noon for the White mountains, where he will be employed at the Sunset Hill house.

Miss Clark, who has been employed in Miss Jessie Kent's millinery store, left this noon for her home in Boston.

Mobilis in buon condizione da vendere a buon mercato causa partenza. Rivoggersi A. G. Capra, 40 Center street.

Mobilis in buon ordine da vendere a prezzi vantaggiosi. Buolissimo affare. Rivoggersi F. Ferrari, 57 Granite street.

Miss Grace Houston returned to Northfield last night, after spending a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Higgins.

Guy L. Johnson returned to his home in Littleton, N. H., to-day, after spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. F. H. Rogers.

Miss Florence Prescott left to-day for the Bangley lakes in Maine, where she will be employed at the Lake house during the coming summer.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Congregational church will hold a sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. H. G. Woodruff Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Emery Seguin, who has been employed as manager of the Granite City laundry for some time, has resigned his position there and returned to his home in Burlington Saturday.

The Italian Athletic club, accompanied by a large bunch of rooters, left the city Saturday morning, when they were looking to play the Tenth Cavalry team from Fort Ethan Allen.

Mrs. B. W. Humphrey, Mrs. W. H. Jackson and Mrs. G. E. Towne have returned from Waterbury, where they attended the graduation exercises of the Waterbury high school and alumni ball.

Sunday and Monday arrivals at the City hotel follow: Mrs. Maud H. Jenness, Barton; Rev. Walter Dale, Enfield, N. H.; J. B. Brackett, Somersworth, N. H.; W. F. Manning, Plainfield, Woodville, N. H.; C. H. Kimball, St. Johnsbury; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walker, Boston; J. E. Miles, Burlington.

The Civic federation is busy preparing a public playground for the children of Barre. Open-air sports under trained instruction will soon be offered. They need your help in such a great undertaking. The concert at the opera house June 15 is under the auspices of the Civic federation, and your patronage will help to further this great cause.

EAST BARRE.

All members of Court Phil Sheridan, No. 8, F. of A., are requested to be present at a meeting to be held in their hall Wednesday evening, June 15. Business of importance is to be taken up. Per order the sec. J. P. Hagun.

The last regular meeting of the Methodist brotherhood before the summer vacation will be held at the church Wednesday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock. A good attendance is requested.

There will be a regular meeting of Barre aerie, 1573, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in F. of A. hall. All members are requested to be present and a smoke talk will follow the regular meeting. State Deputy John H. Dunn will be present. Initiation.

New black and white muslin waists, 70c, at Vaughan's.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

M. Vilan is in Boston for a few days.

Daniel Roach is passing a few days in Boston.

Arthur Frenier passed Sunday at Nigheah pond.

See the new leather belts, 25c, at The Vaughan Store.

Rooms with board at the "Woodbine," 37 Jefferson street.

H. Bloch is spending a few days in Burlington on business.

Harry Brunetta is spending a few days in St. Johnsbury on business.

Just received at Abbott's, another lot of those black silk petticoats at $3.50.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cave, sr., are passing a week in Burlington and Jeffersonville.

If you are ready to change to medium or light-weight underwear, go to the Frank McWhorter Co.

If the Old Lady who left her umbrella at the hall last evening will call on the secretary, she shall receive it.

Band concert Tuesday evening, instead of Wednesday, on account of entertainment in opera house, given by Civic federation. Band rehearsal at 7 o'clock sharp Tuesday evening.

Attention, Macabees: The rally which was to be held in St. Johnsbury this week has been postponed on account of the state commander's mother's death.

Miss Eunice Story, Miss Myrtle Stone and Miss Susan Collins, teachers in the public schools, left Saturday for their homes in East Fairfield and Johnson, respectively.

The people of Barre cannot afford to miss a rare musical treat, such as will be offered at the Barre opera house June 15. A chorus of fifty voices, Gilbertson's orchestra, a soloist of great artistic ability and Miss Allie Trow as reader make an entertainment worthy your patronage.

The D. A. Perry Real Estate agency, with C. F. Smith, auctioneer, sold for Judge W. J. Clapp, trustee, the Fred Colby place, located near Plainfield springs, at auction, on Saturday afternoon, price $450. The trustee was satisfied with the price realized, and the purchaser, A. E. Foss of Plainfield, could not help being.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

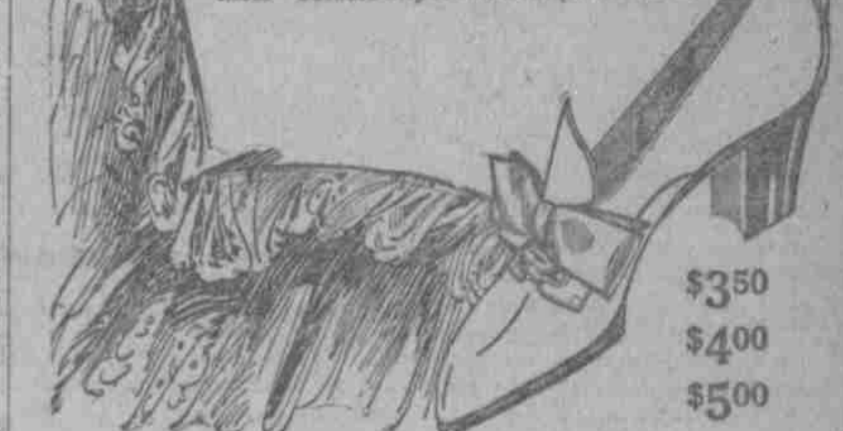

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Dainty and Attractive

That just describes our new Oxford styles in Women's Regal Shoes. No other ready-to-wear shoes for women have their trim, graceful lines.

REGAL SHOES FOR WOMEN

embody every latest fashion-feature of the most expensive custom models now being worn in New York and other fashion-centres. These Regal styles also give you the perfect fit and comfort of made-to-measure shoes—because they are made in quarter-sizes.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN.

One of the best is the P. N. corset, sold at Perry's.

See the new white dresses for ladies' wear, $2.25, $3.95, up, at Vaughan's.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Griffith are passing a few days with relatives in Williams-town.

Sale ladies' garments; see them in window (not advertised), 95c each, at Vaughan's.

Raymond Boston, who has been attending Springfield high school, returned to his home in South Ryegate.

Mrs. A. E. Camp returned to her home in Walpole, N. H., to-day, after passing a week with friends in this city.

William Stuart left this noon for the White mountains, where he will be employed at the Sunset Hill house.

Miss Clark, who has been employed in Miss Jessie Kent's millinery store, left this noon for her home in Boston.

Mobilis in buon condizione da vendere a buon mercato causa partenza. Rivoggersi A. G. Capra, 40 Center street.

Mobilis in buon ordine da vendere a prezzi vantaggiosi. Buolissimo affare. Rivoggersi F. Ferrari, 57 Granite street.

Miss Grace Houston returned to Northfield last night, after spending a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Higgins.

Guy L. Johnson returned to his home in Littleton, N. H., to-day, after spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. F. H. Rogers.

Miss Florence Prescott left to-day for the Bangley lakes in Maine, where she will be employed at the Lake house during the coming summer.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Congregational church will hold a sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. H. G. Woodruff Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Emery Seguin, who has been employed as manager of the Granite City laundry for some time, has resigned his position there and returned to his home in Burlington Saturday.

The Italian Athletic club, accompanied by a large bunch of rooters, left the city Saturday morning, when they were looking to play the Tenth Cavalry team from Fort Ethan Allen.

Mrs. B. W. Humphrey, Mrs. W. H. Jackson and Mrs. G. E. Towne have returned from Waterbury, where they attended the graduation exercises of the Waterbury high school and alumni ball.

Sunday and Monday arrivals at the City hotel follow: Mrs. Maud H. Jenness, Barton; Rev. Walter Dale, Enfield, N. H.; J. B. Brackett, Somersworth, N. H.; W. F. Manning, Plainfield, Woodville, N. H.; C. H. Kimball, St. Johnsbury; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Walker, Boston; J. E. Miles, Burlington.

The Civic federation is busy preparing a public playground for the children of Barre. Open-air sports under trained instruction will soon be offered. They need your help in such a great undertaking. The concert at the opera house June 15 is under the auspices of the Civic federation, and your patronage will help to further this great cause.

EAST BARRE.

All members of Court Phil Sheridan, No. 8, F. of A., are requested to be present at a meeting to be held in their hall Wednesday evening, June 15. Business of importance is to be taken up. Per order the sec. J. P. Hagun.

The last regular meeting of the Methodist brotherhood before the summer vacation will be held at the church Wednesday evening, June 15, at 8 o'clock. A good attendance is requested.

There will be a regular meeting of Barre aerie, 1573, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in F. of A. hall. All members are requested to be present and a smoke talk will follow the regular meeting. State Deputy John H. Dunn will be present. Initiation.

New black and white muslin waists, 70c, at Vaughan's.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

M. Vilan is in Boston for a few days.

Daniel Roach is passing a few days in Boston.

Arthur Frenier passed Sunday at Nigheah pond.

See the new leather belts, 25c, at The Vaughan Store.

Rooms with board at the "Woodbine," 37 Jefferson street.

H. Bloch is spending a few days in Burlington on business.

Harry Brunetta is spending a few days in St. Johnsbury on business.

Just received at Abbott's, another lot of those black silk petticoats at $3.50.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cave, sr., are passing a week in Burlington and Jeffersonville.

If you are ready to change to medium or light-weight underwear, go to the Frank McWhorter Co.

If the Old Lady who left her umbrella at the hall last evening will call on the secretary, she shall receive it.

Band concert Tuesday evening, instead of Wednesday, on account of entertainment in opera house, given by Civic federation. Band rehearsal at 7 o'clock sharp Tuesday evening.

Attention, Macabees: The rally which was to be held in St. Johnsbury this week has been postponed on account of the state commander's mother's death.

Miss Eunice Story, Miss Myrtle Stone and Miss Susan Collins, teachers in the public schools, left Saturday for their homes in East Fairfield and Johnson, respectively.

The people of Barre cannot afford to miss a rare musical treat, such as will be offered at the Barre opera house June 15. A chorus of fifty voices, Gilbertson's orchestra, a soloist of great artistic ability and Miss Allie Trow as reader make an entertainment worthy your patronage.

The D. A. Perry Real Estate agency, with C. F. Smith, auctioneer, sold for Judge W. J. Clapp, trustee, the Fred Colby place, located near Plainfield springs, at auction, on Saturday afternoon, price $450. The trustee was satisfied with the price realized, and the purchaser, A. E. Foss of Plainfield, could not help being.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

Forest Colley, a young man who had made his home for a few years with his grandmother, Mrs. Chase, in Stannard, took a dose of arsenic Monday afternoon, May 30, and although it was some time before the family knew he was ill, a doctor was called and it was thought the man would recover; but late in the afternoon following, his condition became much worse and he died. It is said that no reasonable cause can be ascertained why he wished to take his life.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

J. A. Miles of Burlington was a business visitor in the city to-day.

Rev. W. E. Braisted returned home Saturday from Newton Center, Mass., where he attended the commencement exercises of Newton Theological seminary.

The funeral of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. William McKenna of Webster-ville was held from their home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial was in Willson cemetery; Rev. G. MacArthur officiated.

The funeral of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. William McKenna of Webster-ville was held from their home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial was in Willson cemetery; Rev. G. MacArthur officiated.

The funeral of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. William McKenna of Webster-ville was held from their home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial was in Willson cemetery; Rev. G. MacArthur officiated.

The funeral of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. William McKenna of Webster-ville was held from their home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial was in Willson cemetery; Rev. G. MacArthur officiated.

The funeral of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. William McKenna of Webster-ville was held from their home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial was in Willson cemetery; Rev. G. MacArthur officiated.

The funeral of the little child of Mr. and Mrs. William McKenna of Webster-ville was held from their home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial was in Willson cemetery; Rev. G. MacArthur officiated.